Discretionary interlocutory appeals under Appellate Rule 14\(B\) are handled differently than appeals from final judgments or interlocutory appeals of right. In a discretionary interlocutory appeal, the appealing party must file a motion in the trial court asking the court to certify its order for interlocutory appeal. If that motion is granted, the party must file a motion to accept interlocutory appeal with the Court on Appeals. At the same time, the party must file a Notice of Appearance with the Court on Appeal. Ind. Appellate Rule 16\(H\).

If the Court of Appeals grants the party's motion to accept interlocutory appeal, the appealing party must file a Notice of Appeal with the Clerk of the Supreme Court, Court of Appeals and Tax Court within fifteen (15) days of the Court of Appeals' order.

Keep in mind:

- DO NOT file Notices of Completion before the appellant has filed a Notice of Appeal in the Appellate Court.
- Extensions of time to prepare the Transcript in interlocutory appeals are disfavored. Ind. Appellate Rule 14(G).

Interlocutory Appeals under Ind. Appellate Rule 14\(I\), involving death penalty cases or questions of interpretation of Ind. Code 35-50-2-9 (Life Without Parole), are heard by the Supreme Court.
